Application Requirements & Details

Applicants may be required to participate in an interview process with the Scholarship Advisory Committee.

This scholarship is non-renewable.

All completed applications will be considered, but special consideration will be given to students who exhibit and have demonstrated academic merit, student achievement, community service, and leadership.

This scholarship may be used for qualified educational expenses including tuition, books and fees. Depending on the scholarship recipient's individual financial need, the award may be used for housing, however students will need to consult with their tax advisor and school to determine whether or not the use of the scholarship award for room and board is a qualified, tax-free educational expense.

Scholarship awards will be paid directly to the recipient's college. In special circumstances, awards may be paid to the student directly. However, it will be the responsibility of the student to fulfill with proper reporting, disclosure and appropriate use of scholarship funds.

Attention: Scholarship applications must be received (not postmarked) by Friday, April 7, 2023.

Incomplete and/or late applications will not be considered. Please submit completed applications with school transcripts (unofficial are okay) to: bobby@ivcommunityfoundation.org. Applications can also be mailed to: Imperial Valley Community Foundation, PO Box 2739, El Centro, CA 92244. (Email is preferred)

I hereby agree to all of the above criteria and certify that all of the information provided for this scholarship application is true to the best of my knowledge. I understand that all decisions are final and not subject to review or appeal. I further understand that any information provided in this and other application forms may be shared with committee members of the sponsoring scholarship.
